Repeat rows 2 - 7, changing colors after row 2, alternating between peach blossom and white, and after row 5 back to baby gray.

6 rows of peach blossom, 5 rows of white and 10 complete rows of baby gray.

Stop after row 7 with a half way completed grey flower. Place a marker through this stitch, don't pull through and cut off, you'll be starting the border from this point.

Before starting the border, weave in all the ends with your tapestry needle, working in and out of the loops several times, then cutting the yarn close to the blanket to hide the end.

BORDER

Start at the last stitch you made, CH 3 and turn. dc into the same stitch. Work 3 DC in the next CH 3 space, SK over the SC, DC 3 into the next CH 3 space. SK over the next SC, work 2 DC into the CH 2 space. Continue across the entire row working in this manner. When you get to the next corner, work 1 DC into the CH 1 space and then 3 DC into the SC.

Now work the side of the blanket paying close attention to working one DC per SC and 2 DC around a DC post or CH 3. Try as best you can to keep these stitches even. When you get to the next corner, DC 3 into the corner stitch.

Work across the bottom of the blanket in the same manner you did at the top, 3 DC into CH 3 spaces, skip over SC's, and 2 DC into CH 2 spaces. Don't forget the CH 1 spaces at the beginning and end of the row. Work 3 DC into the corner.

Work back up the side in the same manner as listed above.

Work one final DC into the space where you started with CH 3 and 1 DC. Slip stitch into the top of the CH 3. CH 1 and turn.

SC into each DC around, working 3 SC into each corner. Join with a slip stitch to complete the round, CH 1 and turn. Work 5 rounds of SC.

OPTIONAL (Substitute the final 3 rounds in mesh stitch. I chained 1 and turned, worked 1 SC, CH 1, SK over 1 CH, 1 SC into the next. Repeating this pattern around, working SC, CH 1, SC into each corner. Slip stitch to join, CH 1 and turn. SC into the top of SC, CH 1, SK over CH 1, SC into the top of SC, repeating around, working "SC, CH 1, SC" into the middle CH 1 space of each corner.)
