STITCHES

Single Crochet (SC): Insert your hook, yarn over (YO) and pull up a loop, YO and pull through two loops on hook.

PATTERN

Chain 100 (or any even number) in white.

Row 1: SC in the 4th chain from the hook, CH 1, SK 1 CH, SC in the next CH repeat to the end of the row. (The last stitch should be a SC in the last chain.) CH 2 and turn.

(What I'm telling you to do is chain one after you make that first single crochet, skip the next chain, and single crochet into the next one. Repeat working a single crochet, chain one, skip over the chain space until you get to the end of the row.)

Row 2: SC in the CH 1 space, CH 1, SK next SC, SC into the CH 1 SP repeat to the end working your final SC into the space between the last SC and CHs. CH 2 and turn. (moss stitch)

(In other words, single crochet in the chain 1 space from the row below, chain once, skip over the single crochet in the row below, work a single crochet into the chain one space. Repeat this all the way across and find the space between the last single crochet and the turning chains. Chain 2 and turn.)

Rows 3 - 10: Repeat moss stitch in white. At the end of the 10th row, pull through with gray just before you finish your last single crochet. When you're pulling through with the gray you should have two loops on your hook. Then CH 2 with the gray and turn.

Row 11: Work 1 row of the moss stitch in gray. At the end of the row, pull through with white before you finish your last single crochet. CH 2 and turn.

Rows 12 - 13: Work 2 rows of the moss stitch in white, then at the end of the second white row, pull through with gray.

Row 14: Work one row of gray,

Rows 15 - 16: then two rows of white, repeating rows 14 - 16 until you have 4 lines of gray.

Crochet ten rows of white and then work 4 rows of gray again, with two rows of white in between in each row of gray. I ended up with five sets of the gray stripes when I felt like the blanket was as long as I wanted it.

When finished, tie off and weave in ends. I added some simple tassels by cutting even pieces of yarn and tying them to the ends of my blanket.
