STITCHES

Single Crochet (SC): Insert your hook, yarn over (YO) and pull up a loop, YO and pull through two loops on hook.

Half Double Crochet (HDC): YO, insert your hook, YO and pull up a loop, YO and pull through three loops on hook.

PATTERN

Chain 90 (any number works, there isn't a pattern repeat) with Low Tide.

Row 1: Starting in the second chain from the hook, work 1 SC in each chain. (89 SC)

Row 2: CH (chain) 2 and turn. HDC in first SC stitch from the hook and in each SC across the row. (89 HDC)

Row 3: CH 1 and turn. SC underneath all three loops of the HDC (between the stitch posts of the previous row).

Row 4: CH 2 and turn. HDC in each SC across.

Rows 5 - 10: Repeat rows 3 and 4, alternating one row of SC worked in between the HDC, with one row of HDC. Pull through with Rice Paper on the final HDC.

Rows 11 - 12: CH 2, HDC under all three loops of HDC of the row below. Your last HDC will be in between the turning chain and last HDC. Pull through with Low Tide on last stitch, CH 2 and turn.

Row 13: Repeat Row 3. (Work SC across the row, always under the 3 loops of the HDC.)

Rows 14 - 22: continue alternating rows of HDC and SC.

The pattern continues working 10 rows of alternating SC and HDC in Low Tide, with 2 rows of Rice Paper in all HDC. There are 9 sections of Low Tide, separated by 8 rows of Rice Paper.

When you are finished, weave in all ends and attach your pom poms. I use a 4 inch pom pom maker, the largest I could find, and after I wind the Bernat Roving around the maker, I use thin strong cotton string to tie them tight. Don't use Bernat Roving to secure them. It's great for puffiness, but not for tightening. It will pull apart. I double wrap the insides of the pom poms with the string and use that to securely attach it to each corner of the blanket.

I left the poms all fluffy and mop head looking and loved it. I'm recommending that you hand wash this if needed. But mine was fresh off the hook and didn't need any blocking at all! That's the beauty of Bernat Roving.
